Music

Welcome

Thank you all for coming. We are here to celebrate the life of Linda, and to remember them together.

Today there will be stories and music, and maybe some laughter too. That is how it should be. Each of you knew Linda in your own way, and every memory you carry is part of the picture.

Let us take a moment to be here, together.

Remembering

Life story

Reading

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;

For tho' from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crost the bar.

Alfred, Lord Tennyson
