Sprinkling with holy water

Placing of the pall

Entrance song
The Lord's My Shepherd

The Lord's my Shepherd, I'll not want;
He makes me down to lie
In pastures green; He leadeth me
The quiet waters by.

My soul He doth restore again;
And me to walk doth make
Within the paths of righteousness,
E'en for His own name's sake.

Yea, though I walk in death's dark vale,
Yet will I fear none ill;
For Thou art with me, and Thy rod
And staff me comfort still.

My table Thou hast furnishéd
In presence of my foes;
My head Thou dost with oil anoint,
And my cup overflows.

Goodness and mercy, all my life,
Shall surely follow me;
And in God's house for evermore
My dwelling-place shall be.

Scottish Psalter (1650), revising Francis Rous

General Intercessions

For Thomas, who was baptized into the death and rising of Christ: that Thomas may now share fully in the resurrection. Let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

For the family of Thomas, and for everyone who mourns today: that they may find comfort in God's promises and in the care of the people around them. Let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

For all who walked beside Thomas through life, as family, friends, neighbors and colleagues: that the good Thomas gave them may live on in what they do. Let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

For our relatives and friends who have died, and for the dead whom no one remembers: that they may rest in the peace of God. Let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

For all of us gathered here: that we may hold on to one another in the days ahead and live in the hope of the resurrection. Let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.
