Welcome

Good afternoon, and welcome. Thank you for being here to celebrate Olivia and Noah.

Every person here has been part of their story, as family, as friends or as the people who believed in them along the way. Today they make promises to each other, and they wanted you here to hear them.

So take a breath, turn off your phone, and enjoy every minute with them.

Your story

How it began

Reading

Let me not to the marriage of true minds
Admit impediments. Love is not love
Which alters when it alteration finds,
Or bends with the remover to remove:
O, no! it is an ever-fixed mark,
That looks on tempests and is never shaken;
It is the star to every wandering bark,
Whose worth's unknown, although his height be taken.
Love's not Time's fool, though rosy lips and cheeks
Within his bending sickle's compass come;
Love alters not with his brief hours and weeks,
But bears it out even to the edge of doom.
If this be error, and upon me prov'd,
I never writ, nor no man ever lov'd.

William Shakespeare

Our vows

Today I choose you.

I promise to listen to you, even when we disagree. I promise to be honest with you, even when it is hard. I promise to give you room to grow, and to grow with you.

I will be there when we celebrate and when the storms come. I will support you in what you do and hold you when things go wrong.

I love you, today and every day to come.

Thank you

Thank you for being here today. Your love and support brought us to this day, and it means the world to us that you came to celebrate.

A special thank-you to our parents, for everything they have given us.
